"The house was effectively decorated in the color motif of pink and white. An improvised altar was arranged in the spacious drawing room, baskets of lovely white crepe Myrtle, tied with white tulle, Cathedral candelabras holding, burning white tapers and ferns being used. Quantities of the same lovely white flowers were banked on mantle and cabinets.

Wright in green organdy and Mrs. James Newsom in orchid organdy, all carrying arm bouquets of Shasta daisies.

"The ring ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. F. G. Hartman of the Washington Presbyterian Church.

PRISON VOLUNTEER DIES FOR HIS PAINS

Chicago, July 16.—Constantine Kuhn, so conscientious that he went to prison unaccompanied and at his own expense, has squared accounts with the law. His body was buried yesterday, less than a week after he was sent home to die.

Kuhn attempted to rob a grocery while intoxicated, it was said. He was caught and convicted, but released pending an appeal to the supreme court. Months later his sentence of from one to fourteen years in the penitentiary was affirmed. No one came for him, however. Apparently his case was forgotten. One day he read about his case in the newspapers.

He surrendered at once, but the authorities told him they had no funds to pay his way to prison and no authority to hold him.

"I'll pay my own way," he told them, and went along to prison. His health failed under prison life and finally it was found that he must die. Last Friday he was sent home. Four days later he was dead.
